Prayer class covering Discernment of Spirits starting Sept. 20th after the 10 am Mass.

Father Timothy Gallagher helps us understand the Ignatius's Rules and how their insights are essential for our spiritual growth. Anyone who desires a greater awareness of God's action in their daily spiritual lives would benefit tremendously. Fr. Gallagher is featured on the EWTN series "Living the Discerning Life: The Spiritual Teachings of St. Ignatius of Loyola".

Stewardship Moment

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." - Mark 8:34b - When we truly believe that all we have is a gift from God, then we must be willing to give up some things so that we can share our blessings as God intended. Living a Stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for our own life, but the lives of others as well.

Mass times change to winter schedule at 5 pm Saturdays starting October 3rd.

2015 The Year of Marriage and Family; Theme for September: Parents, First Teachers of the Faith

Let us pray for Catholic parents that they may grow in their understanding that their home is a domestic church, that the home is where the Catholic faith is born in their hearts of their children and nurtured by everyone in the family, and also for all students and teachers, as they start a new year of formal learning and teaching, that they may open hearts to the wonder of and respect for God's creation.

Religious Education modifications reflect Parish Renewal

Some changes are taking place with our Religious education programs. We have switched formats with our youth nights and are starting to respond more to our young people's thirst for a meaningful relationship with Jesus. More is likely to develop as the year progresses. The 4-6th grade girls and boys will be taught as two separate classes with a special focus on being in relationship with Jesus. The content will be more geared towards evangelization and less on catechesis. The reason for this change started with a lack of teachers but very possibly the Holy Spirit has a hand in things to move our parish and youth program more and more in the direction of our Parish Renewal. If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Laframboise.
